

C-U Oktoberfest is a virtual event this year! Now you can enjoy the 8th Annual C-U Oktoberfest, a fall celebration of music, beer and food at Home and here's how!

We encourage you to plan ahead - (within recommended public health guidelines, of course).

Pre-Event:

- 1) Go to our Facebook event, @CUOktoberfest, let us know you're coming and share it with your friends.
- 2) Purchase raffle tickets and merchandise. We will have both 50/50 cash raffle tickets and basket raffle tickets, in addition to Oktoberfest merchandise available for purchase.

- 3) Invite a few friends, or business colleagues to join you. This is for a great cause! All proceeds benefit DSC, a local non-profit that supports children and adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities. (Again, please follow current recommended public health guidelines.)
- 4) Check out our food and drink recommendations. Pre-order your food for pick-up, or plan to make your own at home. www.cuoktoberfest.org
- 5) We're looking for Oktoberfest pet pics, photos of your Oktoberfest home décor, or pictures of you out shopping. Submit your photos to info@dsc-illinois.org. We will choose some pictures to share during event week.
- 6) Follow along during the coming weeks, as we share updates from sponsors, vendors and more about how you can participate @CUOktoberfest

Day of Event:

- 1) Plan to tune in on Friday, October 2nd at 4pm for the basket raffle drawing, Live on Facebook and Saturday, October 3rd 4-8pm for the full C-U Oktoberfest at Home event, including music from the Polkaholics, the Bolzen Beer Band and the Die Musikmeisters Band. We'll also have fun and educational videos from our brewers, sponsors and food vendors, and of course the 50/50 cash raffle drawing. Tune in for the whole evening, or join however your schedule permits.
- 2) Send in pictures of you picking up your food/drinks, dressed up in your dirndl/lederhosen, Oktoberfest merchandise, or just enjoying the event. Submit your photos to info@dsc-illinois.org. We will choose some pictures to share during the event.
- 3) Have fun & consider making a donation to DSC! Your gift directly supports the children and adults we serve providing them the opportunity to achieve personal success.

Tip: Plan ahead to view the event on a larger screen. For example, plug your laptop into your TV with an HDMI cable and test your audio.
